International Business Acquisitions, 4th Edition

Kluwer Law International, a leading publishing company, has recently announced the release of the fourth edition of the International Business Acquisitions, a desk reference book to which contributed many firms of the World Law Group.

This book covers 40 jurisdictions worldwide and provides, under a common format, a practical country-by-country presentation addressing the major legal and tax issues relating to cross-border acquisitions, sales, investments and other transactions. It constitutes a clear and useful guide to all legal and business professionals concerned with the acquisitions of the securities or business assets of a company located outside their own national jurisdiction.

Jean-Luc Soulier and Chems Idrissi have authored the chapter France of this book.
