Mrs. Lydie Bontemps-Helmy has joined Soulier Avocats as Counsel in corporate law and business law

Soulier Avocats is pleased to announce that Mrs. Lydie Bontemps-Helmy has joined the firm as Counsel.

Lydie focuses her practice on corporate law, domestic and international contracts, and commercial law.

She provides legal assistance to a French and foreign clientele comprising primarily multinationals, industrial and services companies, SMBs, investors and business owners in connection with domestic and cross-border corporate transactions, external growth transactions, transfers of businesses, group reorganizations and restructurings, and equity transactions.

Lydie also assists French and foreign businesses in the drafting and negotiation of all types of domestic and international contracts.

After more than four years working in Shanghai (China), she has developed a substantial expertise in assisting foreign investors in their expansion projects in France.
